

BIO – Ann Carden

Ann Carden is a National Strategic Business and Marketing Consultant and Coach, a three-time Author and Key-note Speaker. She works with small-mid size businesses for business growth, systems and processes, revenue and profitability and marketing success.

She has built multiple businesses for herself and sold multiple businesses over the past twenty-seven years. Ann is considered a high-performance coach in the industry, running her own consulting company and was named one of the TOP 150 COACHES in 2017 by Six Figure Coaches Magazine.

She is a wife of thirty-six years to her husband Clayton, a mom to two great adult children and a grandmother to 15 month old triplets.

Ann is dedicated to helping businesses go from GOOD to GREAT. Helping them build a great business, great bank account and a great life from their business.