

Phil Brandt, President and CEO, AAIM Employers' Association, has 25+ years of experience in working with business owners, executives, and operational leadership teams in both domestic and global business environments. Throughout his career, Phil has focused on generating sustainable profits by maximizing the output of people systems. He brings a unique blend of strategic, but practical solutions to the business world.

Phil has held senior leadership roles at several large, international organizations such as; Patriot Coal Corporation, GKN Aerospace, and Nestle Purina PetCare Company.